2010 EMMY AWARD
winning independent film.

Incarcerated teenage girls get a shot at redemption in a musical based on their lives. As they write and stage their play, they re-live their crimes, reclaim their humanity, and take the first steps toward breaking free of the prison system.

Featuring girls from the juvenile prison in Warrenville, IL.

Following the screening, join the discussion, led by Mariame Kaba, Executive Director of Project Nia. Project NIA facilitates the creation of community-focused responses to youth violence and crime.
